

3rd TUM Student Training takes place at the Geospatial & Space Technology Department, UoN.

The training for the students who are from the Building & Civil Engineering department, Technical University of Mombasa took place from 12th September, 2016 to 21st September, 2016.

It is a training aimed at giving relevant geospatial techniques and skills to civil engineering students.