

The department of Geospatial & Space Technology participated in the Inaugural School of Engineering Open Day on 12/03/16.

In a competition featuring the SoE's five departments on Students' and the departments' innovations on the country's three core pillars in Vision 2030, namely: economic, social and political; the department of Geospatial & Space Technology managed to scoop the 1st Runners-up position.