

Final 5th Year Project Presentation

Geospatial & Space Technology Department held the Final Oral Defense for 5th Year for the academic year ending April, 2019. It is an event where the Geospatial & Space Technology Department, successfully Examines through oral defense, all the 5th years in the unit FGE592. It is a culmination of a two semester unit that the students start at the onset of their 5th year under the supervision of various lecturers. In attendance were both teaching and non teaching staffs together with students from within the department.